Intro. Fiddle

Do you believe in angels here on earth
Tending to the cause of their fellow man
Paying heed to the woes of those in need
Never wanting money for a good deed
Nothing in this worldly place
Is more rewarding than a smile on a face
And you just can't beat that feeling of pride
Helping others makes you feel inside

You never miss the chance to lend a helping hand
Or offer hope to those you see in need
Taking time making sure that its done right
And in those hours of darkness you shine for us a light
You've only got one shot a this thing called life
And time here's short so ya gotta get it right
No you don't mind sweating to sew the seed
But to reap the reward, sometimes you gotta bleed

Inst. Break: fiddle

This is for all those angels here on earth
Whose selfless way of life, in turn makes living worth
When the thunder rolls and we crack the sky
When those heavenly angels sing
I pray the good lord smile upon you
And rewards you with golden wings
I pray the good lord smile
May you go and sing
'cause baby for what it's worth
I know you are an angel here on earth
