Key of G

I drive for miles it seems a lifetime
I long to stop and rest these eyes for a while
But I push on into the cold November night
Somewhere north of Point-au-Baril on Highway 69
Making my way back home, back where I belong
I'm coming...

Chorus:

Home, where the one I love waits for me
Its where my heart is calling me
And in your arms I long to be
Home, where the shooting stars and northern lights
Dance with sweet delight, when I hold my baby tight
Home is where my heart is bound tonight

Just on more stop for gas along the way
Just one more cup of tnt ( I'll take a double-double please)
My heart's racing but time seems to move so slow
With nowhere to pass and all this traffic stop and go
And somewhere between the stream of bright headlights
I finally make it through alright
I'm coming...

Chorus

Up in the distance see the flashing lights
Busted glass and skid marks on the road
Just one more sound byte on the evening news tonight
One more statistic I suppose
And as I greet the coming day
I pray God guide me on my way...

Chorus

And we dance with sweet delight
When I hold my baby tight
Yes home is where my heart is bound tonight
