Key of G

Intro – guitar, dobro

Like a cat stretched out in the sun
Like a white tailed deer on the run
It gets so natural every day
As the stars come out at night
It feels so right, and I think
You and me we can make it all the way
When we were younger we had some restless moments
But time has strengthened all those ties that bind

Like a wine matures with age
Our lives unfold like a play on stage
I think I love you more each day
Like Romeo and Juliette, or Bonnie and Clyde
Back to back we stand now, side by side
I was a wild one, but I'm settling down
'cause if I ever lost you
I know my world would come crumbling down

Like a spring rain makes things grow
After winter's snow
God knows I need you to get by Yes our roots will just grow deeper
Until the day were called up to the keeper
I pledge my love to you till the day I die

Dobro Break

Like a singer with the blues, I give my life to you
'cause we are only here for just a while
Yeh you taught me how to dance
Now I'm glad we took a chance
Seeing you with the kids well it makes me smile
When It comes down to it, that's what life's about
Work and play, day by day
Praying that it all works out

As we grow old together
Many a storm we'll surly have to weather
But I know we'll make it by and by Yes our hearts will just grow fonder
'till the day we're called up yonder
I pledged my love to you till the day I die
Like Romeo or Juliette, or Bonnie and Clyde
Back to back we stand together, side by side

Like a cat stretched out in the sun
Like a white tailed deer on the run
It gets au-natural every day
Like a wine matures with age
Our lives unfold like a play on stage
And I think, I love you
Heck, I know I love you,
God knows I love you more each day
